

Dreaming in English

Lena and Gavin are two teenagers who meet on the beach in Brighton. She comes from a wealthy background - but he is penniless. She is Greek and he is English.

On a trip to London they explore the sights of the big city
...but what hope is there for their relationship?

